network west midlands

Jubilee Bank Holiday weekend 2012 Rail, Bus and Metro services

There will be changes to normal rail, bus and Metro services in the Network West Midlands area during the Jubilee Bank Holiday period.

Rail

Saturday 2nd June

A revised Chiltern Railways service will operate between West Midlands stations and London Marylebone.

The 23:18 Birmingham New Street – Hednesford will not run. A rail replacement bus will operate between Birmingham New Street and Hednesford (calling at all stations).

Sunday 3rd June

Revised timetables will be in operation on both Chiltern Railways and Virgin Trains services between the West Midlands and London.

Until 16:00 London Midland services between Birmingham New Street and Wolverhampton / Crewe / Liverpool Lime Street will not run. Rail replacement buses will operate between Birmingham New Street and Wolverhampton, between Wolverhampton and Crewe and between Crewe and Liverpool Lime Street.

Until 16:00 Arriva Trains Wales services between Birmingham New Street and Holyhead / Aberystwyth / Pwlheli will be diverted and will not call at Wolverhampton. A connecting bus service will run between Wolverhampton and Bilbrook.

Until 16:00 CrossCountry services between Bournemouth and Manchester Piccadilly will be diverted and will not call at Wolverhampton or Stafford. A connecting bus service will run between Wolverhampton, Stafford and Stoke-on-Trent.

Until 16:00 Virgin Trains services will be diverted and will not call at Wolverhampton or Stafford. Passengers for Stafford should use rail replacement buses to / from Wolverhampton.

After 16:00 trains will run between Birmingham New Street and Crewe. Rail replacement buses will operate between Crewe and Liverpool Lime Street.

London Midland services between Birmingham New Street and London Euston will not call at Long Buckby or Northampton. Rail replacement buses will operate between Rugby and Northampton.

The 09:48 Rugeley Trent Valley – Birmingham New Street will start from Walsall. A rail replacement bus will operate between Rugeley Trent Valley and Walsall.

Monday 4th June

Trains on many routes will operate to an amended timetable at a reduced level of frequency.

Trains between Birmingham New Street and Coventry / Northampton will start from Birmingham International and terminate at Rugby, running to a special timetable at a reduced level of frequency.

Trains between Birmingham New Street and London Euston will start from Birmingham International and will not call at Long Buckby or Northampton.

CrossCountry services between Bournemouth and Manchester Piccadilly will be diverted and will not call at Coventry or Birmingham International. Rail replacement buses will operate between Leamington Spa, Coventry and Birmingham International.

Rail replacement buses will operate between Birmingham New Street and Birmingham International, and between Rugby and Northampton.

The 07:39 Wolverhampton – Birmingham New Street will not run.

The 23:18 Birmingham New Street – Hednesford will not run. A rail replacement bus will operate between Birmingham New Street and Hednesford (calling at all stations).

Tuesday 5th June

A revised Chiltern Railways service will operate between West Midlands stations and London Marylebone.

Trains on many routes will operate to an amended timetable at a reduced level of frequency.

The 07:39 Wolverhampton – Birmingham New Street will not run.

The 23:18 Birmingham New Street – Hednesford will not run. A rail replacement bus will operate between Birmingham New Street and Hednesford (calling at all stations).

Bus

Saturday 2nd June

A normal service will operate. Ring and Ride will operate normal services.

Sunday 3rd June

A normal service will operate. Ring and Ride will operate normal services.

Monday 4th June

A Sunday service will operate. Ring and Ride will operate normal services.

Tuesday 5th June

A Sunday service will operate. Ring and Ride will operate normal services.

Metro

Saturday 2nd June

A normal service will operate.

Sunday 3rd June

A normal service will operate.

Monday 4th June

A Sunday service will operate.

Tuesday 5th June

A Sunday service will operate.

for all public transport information visit networkwestmidlands.com or telephone traveline on 0871 200 22 33
calls cost 10p per minute plus network extras

For details of individual routes, please telephone the Traveline 0871 200 22 33.
For information on rail journeys please contact National Rail Enquiries on 08457 48 49 50 (Calls to this number may be recorded) or visit nationalrail.co.uk

May1222